About the Program

You're vacationing in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. On the last day of your trip, you get hurt. Maybe you slip by the pool, you strain your back while windsurfing or get stung by a sea urchin. You don't speak the local language. What do you do?

You can rely on Travel Assistance, a service included with your Group Life insurance from Standard Insurance Company (The Standard). Assist America, our Travel Assistance partner, can provide the help you need while you're away from home.*

WHEN SHOULD I CONTACT ASSIST AMERICA?

Contact Assist America when you're experiencing a medical or non-medical travel emergency while traveling:

- More than 100 miles from home or in another country
- For less than 180 days

You don't have to wait until you leave home to receive some of the services. Don't hesitate to contact Assist America before your trip. To learn about your destination, you can also use the Pre-Trip Information tool at standard.com/travel and the Assist America mobile app. For details on using the tool and app, see page 2.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Assist America is available to you at no extra cost, as an added-value service with your policy from The Standard. Assist America pays for some of the services it arranges with no financial limitation.

WHAT IS ASSIST AMERICA'S ROLE DURING A MEDICAL EMERGENCY?
