

Would Your Employee Benefits Cover This?

WHY YOU NEED MASA MTS

Modern Health Insurance is Leaving You Exposed

Many people assume that their health insurance policy will cover them for ambulance rides and other emergency transportation. Unfortunately, this is often not the case. During the last ten years, huge gaps have opened in most insurance plans, which can leave you exposed to unexpected out of pocket expenses for ground and air ambulances, particularly when emergency transportation is involved.

4 Ways You Can End Up With Out-Of-Pocket Costs

OUT-OF-NETWORK PROVIDERS

According to a 2021 IBIS World market research report, there are over 27,000 ambulance services in the United States, yet your health insurance policy may only cover a limited number of in-network providers. However, when emergencies happen, you can't be choosy, and there's no guarantee that you will be picked up by an in-network provider for a ground ambulance. According to Consumer Reports, 79% of all ground ambulance rides could result in an out-of-network bill. Essentially, that means your chances of being responsible for a majority of the bill are pretty high.

THE REASON FOR YOUR TRIP

Health insurance policies will only pay for an ambulance trip deemed "Medically Necessary." Medical necessity is established when any other method of transportation (besides an ambulance) would endanger the patient's life. For example, let's say you're experiencing symptoms commonly associated with a heart attack and take an ambulance to the hospital. If your health insurance carrier decides that the cause of your symptoms (perhaps indigestion, heartburn, or a panic attack) doesn't meet their requirements for an ambulance, they could deny your claim and leave you on the hook for thousands of dollars.

USUAL, CUSTOMARY & REASONABLE RATE

If picked up by an out-of-network ground ambulance provider, and even if the insurance accepts the claim, we know that generally, at best, to expect that the carrier will only pay the Usual, Customary, and Reasonable Rate. This rate is commonly only a fraction of the overall charges, creating a potential balance bill responsibility.

COPAYS & DEDUCTIBLES

Even if your bills fall within the Usual, Customary and Reasonable Rate, most insurance plans have copays and deductibles. Copays are set fees attached to certain medical services. A deductible is a set amount you must pay before insurance coverage kicks in. Depending on your health insurance plan, some deductibles can be as high as $8,000. So, regardless of other variables, if you need a ground ambulance ride, you could automatically be responsible for hundreds to thousands of dollars just to fulfill the requirements of your insurance plan.
