

Sometimes You Can Take It With You.

These insurance benefits are automatically¹ portable:

- Accident
- Critical Illness²
- Hospital Indemnity

It's easy to bring your benefits with you if you leave your job. You can keep the same rates³ you have now, with no interruptions in coverage. You'll receive a letter from The Standard[‡] with details, plus a number to call to start the process. Then send your payment within 31 days after you get your first bill.

See the flip side for more details.

1 You won't be eligible to port coverage in all circumstances. See p. 2.

2 Critical Illness insurance is called Specified Disease in New York and Vermont.

3 Rates may change annually.

[‡] The Standard is a marketing name for StanCorp Financial Group, Inc. and subsidiaries. Insurance products are offered by Standard Insurance Company of Portland, Oregon, in all states except New York, where insurance products are offered by The Standard Life Insurance Company of New York of White Plains, New York.

How the Auto-Port Feature Works

Watch for a letter from The Standard[‡] with more details, plus a number to call to start the process.

To continue your coverage, just pay The Standard directly within 31 days after you get your first bill.

Then keep paying your statements to stay covered — up to the maximum age in your policy.

Questions?

For products in the state of New York, call The Standard at 877.699.6206.

For products in all other states, call The Standard at 866.851.2429.

We'll help make it simple for you to keep your Accident, Critical Illness or Hospital Indemnity insurance. And the important financial protection it provides. So you can feel prepared for those unexpected expenses.

These are limited benefit policies. You won't be eligible to port coverage if you're disabled or 80 age or older (age 70 or older for Accident insurance). Critical Illness insurance is called Specified Disease insurance in New York and Vermont. In New York, you can't port Specified Disease coverage if you are age 80 or older; are disabled; have been paid the Maximum Group Policy Amount under the employer's Group Policy; or, for dependent insurance, if the dependent no longer meets the definition of a dependent. Product availability and policies may vary by state. This policy has exclusions, limitations, reduction of benefits, and terms under which the policy may be continued in force or terminated. Please contact The Standard or your employer for additional information, including costs and complete details of coverage.

The Standard, 1100 SW Sixth Avenue, Portland, OR 97204 | standard.com

The Standard Life Insurance Company of New York, 333 Westchester Avenue, West Building, Suite 300, White Plains, NY 10604

[‡]The Standard is a marketing name for StanCorp Financial Group, Inc. and subsidiaries. Insurance products are offered by Standard Insurance Company of 1100 SW Sixth Avenue, Portland, Oregon, in all states except New York, where insurance products are offered by The Standard Life Insurance Company of New York of 333 Westchester Avenue, West Building, Suite 300, White Plains, New York. Product features and availability vary by state and company, and are solely the responsibility of each subsidiary. Each company is solely responsible for its own financial condition. Standard Insurance Company is licensed to solicit insurance business in all states except New York. The Standard Life Insurance Company of New York is licensed to solicit insurance business in only the state of New York.