

Frequently Asked Questions About Filing A Hospital Indemnity Insurance Claim

The following questions and answers will help you file a Hospital Indemnity insurance claim with Standard Insurance Company (The Standard).

When Should I File A Claim?

File a claim if you or your covered dependent(s) are hospitalized due to a covered injury or sickness. See your Group Certificate for a list of hospitalization benefits covered under your policy.

How Do I File A Claim?

To file a claim online, go to standard.com, click on the following options:

- “Log in”
- “Don’t have an account? Start here” to create an account and follow the steps
- “Get Started”
- “Start a new Claim”
- “Hospital Indemnity”

To file a paper claim, go to standard.com, choose “File a Claim”, select “Start a Claim” and then click on “Paper Claim Forms” to download a claim form.

When I Report My Claim, What Information Will I Need To Provide?

You will be asked to provide the following information:

- Employer name:
- Group Policy number:
- Name and Social Security number
- Nature of claim/medical information
- Physician’s contact information (name, address, phone and fax number)

A typical claim packet for hospital indemnity benefits contains the following documents to complete, sign and date:

- An Employee’s Statement, which may include support documentation
- An Attending Physician Statement
- An Authorization to Obtain and Release Information

The Standard may request medical records from your physician.

Where Do I Send The Completed Paper Forms?

Mail completed, signed and dated paper forms to:

Standard Insurance Company
P.O. Box 85508
Lincoln, NE 68501-5508

Or if you prefer, you may fax completed forms to our office at 402.328.4029.

How Long Does It Take To Make A Claim Decision?

Once The Standard receives the required completed, signed and dated documents listed above, it will take approximately 5 business days to make a claim decision. If we have not made a decision within 5 business days, you will be notified with additional details.
