FAQ'S REGARDING WAIVER OF CANCER INSURANCE PREMIUM

What is Waiver of Premium?

Waiver of premium allows an employee's Cancer coverage to continue without premium being charged while they are on disability. This benefit may apply to employer and/or employee paid benefits.

What are the eligibility requirements for Waiver of Premium?

Please review your employee certificate booklet for your plan's specific requirements.

When should I submit my application for Waiver of Premium?

Even though the request will not be approved before the waiting period is met, the employee should submit the completed application as soon as possible.

When will my waiver of premium become effective?

If approved, the waiver of premium will be effective once the waiting period is met.

SUBMITTING AN APPLICATION FOR WAIVER OF CANCER INSURANCE PREMIUM

What to Expect:

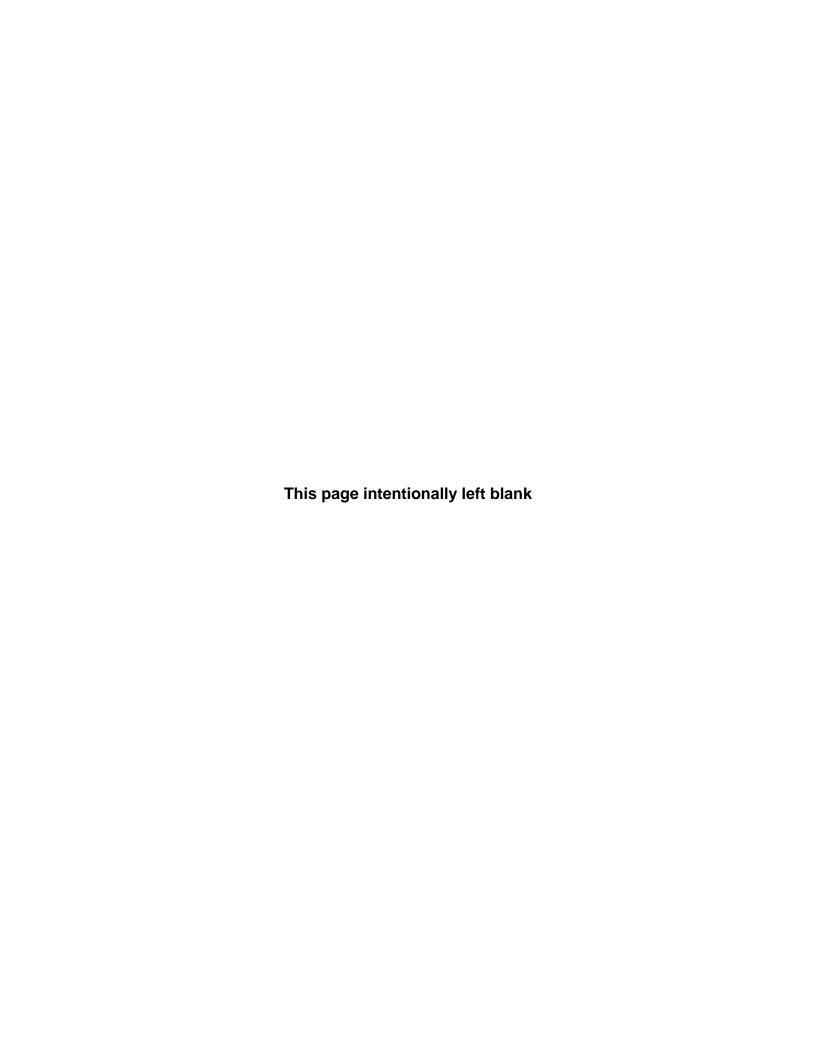

- 1. The initial review of the claim will typically be completed within 15 calendar days. If additional information is required, you will be contacted once this initial review is completed.
- Please note, due to the contractual differences between the Cancer Waiver of Premium benefits, Long Term Disability, and Social Security Disability, receipt of Long Term Disability or Social Security Disability benefits does not guarantee your entitlement to Cancer Waiver of Premium benefits.

Instructions for Employee:

- 1. Employee must complete and sign Sections 1 (Employee Information) and 2 (Disability Information) of this form.
- 2. Provide Attending Physician's State of disability (GG-117) completed by each attending physician who treated the patient during the period of disability. If you have recently submitted a disability claim to Guardian, we will utilize the medical information received with your disability claim. If additional information is needed, we will contact you.

Instructions for Employer:

- 1. Employer must complete and sign Section 3 (Employer Section) of this form.
- 2. Provide a copy of the employee's Enrollment Form(s) and any Beneficiary Designation/Change forms.
