

Family Benefits Package

Keeping Dreams Alive

The plans for a child's higher education shouldn't end with the death of a parent. Employers can help keep those and other dreams alive with the Family Benefits Package from Standard Insurance Company (The Standard).

The Family Benefits Package provides financial assistance to eligible family members in the event of a covered employee's accidental death for which Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D) insurance benefits are payable. All benefits are subject to maximum amounts and policy limitations.

Helping Them Succeed

This comprehensive package of family-oriented benefits includes:

Higher Education Benefit. Pays for qualifying tuition expenses incurred by an employee's eligible children. The benefit is paid annually per child, for a maximum of four consecutive years beginning on the date of the employee's death. The benefit will not exceed $5,000 per year, or the cumulative total of $20,000 or 25 percent of the employee's AD&D insurance benefit – whichever is less.

Career Adjustment Benefit. Pays for qualifying tuition expenses incurred by an employee's eligible spouse for training aimed at obtaining employment or increasing earnings within 36 months of the date of the insured's death. The benefit will not exceed $5,000 per year, or the cumulative total of $10,000 or 25 percent of the employee's AD&D insurance benefit – whichever is less.

Child Care Benefit. Pays for qualifying child care costs incurred by an employee's spouse in order to work or obtain training aimed at securing employment or increasing earnings within 36 months after the date of the employee's death.
